4-H Pig Club Boys Visit County Farms

Seventeen Boys on Tour of Inspection of Farms Over County Handling Hogs

The Randall county 4-H Pig Club boys spent the day last Friday with County Agent W. H. Upchurch on a tour of farms in which they visited each boy's home farm and inspected his pigs and offered suggtions to each other on the methods being employed in producing pork.

Seventeen boys were present at noon when a stop was made for a picnic lunch at the Canyon Club grounds. Each of the 17 boys was picked up on the first round in the forenoon and dropped off on the return trip in the afternoon. Each boy was able to make the entire trip of 100 miles and visit all of the other boys' projects. Only short stops were made because of the shortage of time for driving the entire circuit twice, yet the boys were able to learn from each other many things that will help them in growing better pigs. They also learned something of the handicaps to hog raising in Randall county. They learned that lack of good green pasture is one of the hardest to overcome. However, in spite of the dry weather more than half the boys have some sort of green pasture for their pigs at this time. Some of the boys have good rotation pastures where they have been able to grow good sudan grass on small plats that were plowed early in rotation with winter pasture or rye and wheat.

The boys learned that lack of good water facilities is one of the biggest handicaps to hog raising in the summer time. Only about one farm in ten where hogs are produced is equipped with automatic or other convenient watering devices that insure plenty of clean drinking water for the pigs at all times during the busy summer season.

Most of the pig club boys are equipped with self-feeders. On two of the farms visited new feeders were under construction. They were able to pick up valuable pointers on building feeders. Boys making the trip Friday were: Edwin Bailey, Jerry Bailey, Richmond Hales, Jones Hales, Meade Michael, Leroy Boehning, Billy Dugan, Roger Dugan, Lowell Smith, Melvin Smith, Lee Roy Bauer, Franklin Bauer, Kenneth Smith, James Bible, Rudolph Friemel, Jr., Richard Beckman and William Vorwald.

George Brasuel Writes Mother From Philippines

A letter written by Cpl. George A. Brasuel on March 2 has been received by his mother, Mrs. Hattie Brasuel. Cpl. Brasuel was in the Philippines, his address being APO No. 6, In the Field.

The letter was written in very general terms in order to get by the censor.

"There are still worse places in the world," concluded Cpl. Brasuel. He asked his mother to "Give all the natives my regards."

Mrs. Brasuel was greatly pleased to hear from her son. Since the fall of the Philippines into Jap hands, she has received no word from her son. The War Department has advised there is no record of his capture by the Japs. He is listed among the missing, and mail addressed to him has been returned.

Malcolm Bull and Harold Lowe are two other Canyon boys who were in the Philippine campaign. No word has been received from either of the boys.

Rattle Snake Is Killed in Rhea Robbins Home

Mrs. Rhea Robbins stepped on a rattle snake which was coiled on the bath mat of her home Sunday evening. It is evident that she stepped on its head, or near the head, as the reptile wrapped itself around her ankle. Mrs. Robbins screamed and succeeded in getting out of the room without the snake striking her.

Her nephew made a search of the bath room and found it in the closet, killing the snake. It was 33½ inches long and as large around as her wrist. It had five rattles, and some had been broken off.

A hole in the floor of the closet was the only way that the snake could have gotten into the house.

State Tax Rate Is Increased; County Same

The tax rate for Randall county will be $1.67 on the $100 valuation.

The state tax rate was set last week at 75 cents, which is only 2 cents less than the constitutional limit. The rate was increased over last year owing to the deficit in the school fund as a result of the decrease in gasoline taxes.

The rate for Randall county was set at 92 cents on the $100 valuation, which is the same rate as last year.

The county's tax roll is now being made at the office of M. E. Cantrell, Sheriff, Tax Assessor and Collector.

Bond Sales Of County Meeting August Quota

Randall county citizens met the first quarter of the August sale of War Bonds.

The quota for August is $17,500, which is a little less than the quota for July.

The sales for the first period, August 1-8 amounted to $5,493.75. If this rate of sales continues thruout the month the quota will again be exceeded.

During July the sales amounted to $25,492.75. However, there is a deficit in sales of $4,946.25 for the months of May, June and July. County Chairman R. H. Wright hopes that the citizens of Randall county will make up the deficit during August.

Men In Service Must Surrender Rationing Cards

W. J. Wooten, chairman of the Randall County War Price and Rationing Board, called attention to the fact that many persons, either from lack of information or through negligence, are failing to surrender their War Ration Books to the local board when they are inducted into the armed services.

Heirs and next-to-kin also are failing to surrender to the board the books of persons who have died, Mr. Wooten said.

"There have been only 21 ration books surrendered for these causes to this board," he pointed out. Many men have entered the armed services from this county.

Birth registrations and surrender of books as a result of deaths also are considerably below our estimates of the reasonable expectation.

Spoke Tuesday to Local Voters

Senator Charged Opponents and Recited What He Had Accomplished For Texas

W. LEE O'DANIEL

Senator W. Lee O'Daniel spoke in Canyon Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock. His caravan of two sound trucks and four sedans carrying a large number of workers had made a rapid sweep through the Panhandle during the first two days of the week.

The crowd which heard the Senator was much smaller than the one which assembled here last year. The Senator acknowledged the presence of a large delegation from Hereford and many Amarillo people.

The Senator stated that this campaign was different from any he had ever made. He was out to express appreciation for the fine vote he received in the first primary. He received more than 48% of the vote cast. "If they hadn't got tired and quit counting," the

Rains Fall Over County Improve Crop Prospects

A third of an inch of rain fell in Canyon Monday evening. The rain was much heavier over the west part of the county, ranging as high as 2½ inches in some sections.

While rain has missed Canyon, many sections have been visited with good rains during the past two weeks. Rain amounting to half an inch fell over much of the county Friday night.

Prospects for a row crop has improved very greatly because of the recent rains. Practically every section of the county, except Canyon, has received rains to give the row crops a fine start. If there is a late frost this fall, farmers believe they will have a good grain crop.

Commissioners in Charge of Drive

Great Scrap Drive to Come to Close on August 29; Is National Drive

Randall county citizens are "all set" to take part in the National Scrap Harvest which will come to a climax in this county on August 39. Metals and rubber are needed for war purposes, and Governor Coke R. Stevenson and the War Production Board have called for an all out program.

All farm implement manufacturers who have representatives throuout Texas are assisting in the Scrap Harvest.

Chairman A. H. Hunt, of the Randall County Salvage Committee, will direct the campaign in this county, assisted by members of the Commisioners Court and County Agent W. H. Uuchurch.

Collection depots to which citizens will bring their scrap will be established in Canyon.

All types of scrap material are needed, but there is a particular need for scrap iron and steel, and other metals and rubber. Every acre of every farm should be canvassed for discarded farm implements, broken parts, worn hoes, shovels, broken hammers, nails, wire, broken household utensils, tires, inner tubes, hose, belting, gloves, rubber soles, boots, in fact anything made of rubber and metal.

To "harvest" all scrap scattered on the farms of the Nation is the prime purpose of this drive and to deliver it to channels which will lead to war production. The Nation desperately needs scrap to use in building planes, guns, tanks, ships and other weapons for the fighting forces at the front.

More Men Enter Military Service From the County

According to a message from Fort Sill yesterday, Dr. C. W. Freed has received a commission as Second Lieutenant. He was in the group from Canyon entering Officer Training. Because of his previous experience, he was offered the commission without further training.

WE GET A LETTER

We received an unsigned letter the other day regarding the political situation in Texas. The news does not publish unsigned letters. The writer who is not sure of his facts and will not put his signature to a letter is due no consideration.

In attempting to show up the opponents of Senator O'Daniel, the writer deals in abuse of those who do not believe that the Senator is truly representing Texas. No abuse is too strong for such writers to those who have taken the record of O'Daniel apart and have shown that he is not what he professes to be, and that he is not representing the people of Texas as they should be represented.

So far as The News is concerned, we have dealt only in the records. Senator O'Daniel has made his record. It is subject to criticism, and those who do not believe with the Senator are not Communists simply because they have proved that O'Daniel sees things wrong, and has not done the bidding of the people of Texas.

So far as Senator O'Daniel or Judge James V. Allred is concerned, it makes not a whit of difference who is elected so far as the men are concerned. Both have been Governor and the people of Texas have given them honors above those handed out to many other men even more capable than these two. But it does make a lot of difference in the manner in which these men have handled their offices of trust and the attitude they have toward the questions which confront the nation today.

Senator O'Daniel claims all the records for old age assistance in Texas. As a matter of record the money that has been paid on old age assistance up until just one year ago was provided under the Allred administration. In other words, if you will stay by the record you will find that the old age assistance problem was far beyond its present day situation long before the Fort Worth flour salesman started to bull fiddle the people into electing him to an office in a Democratic primary in which he himself could not vote. He refused to be a good Democrat to the extent of paying his own poll tax.

He proclaimed himself as the candidate of the great common people, and invited the people to come to Austin to see him. But when they went, they found his office door barred, and all chairs removed from the waiting room. If your feet and patience held out, the Governor of the "great common people" might have seen you.

He claimed honor for settling the strike situation in Texas, but according to the records, James V. Allred was the first Governor in the nation to condemn strikes and to warn labor racketeers to stay out of Texas. Senator O'Daniel was going to show the people of the nation how to settle the labor problem when he reached Washington, but the bill he introduced received one vote—his own. Certainly the Senator and his friends do not say that the other 95 United States Senators are ruled by labor racketeers! Yet he says that the campaign against him in Texas is being made by the Communists, and labor racketeers who are spending huge funds to unseat him. The Senator makes charges without offering proof.

Regardless of his past weakness, it is very evident to all, excepting those blinded by prejudice, that Senator O'Daniel has no influence in Washington. In his ego O'Daniel boasted to have run the President out of Washington when he arrived with his bull fiddle band. He showed his littleness when he crashed a meeting called by the President of Congressional leaders to work on war plans, but O'Daniel announced that he went uninvited just to see to it that Texas was represented.

His record of achievement in Washington has been a blank. Texans who expect to receive anything from Washington are advised to stay away from O'Daniel.

All you need to do is read his record and be convinced that Texas would be better off without O'Daniel than we are with him in Washington. He has voted with the arch enemies of the President, and according to his own words the war is no affair of his.

The writer of this unsigned letter takes The News to task and charges that we take orders from the big newspapers. The writer shows the greatest ignorance of newspapers in these statements. The newspapers of America are free publications, and the publishers have the right to tell the truth. If the newspapers ever stop telling the truth then the newspapers will perish—and they should perish—and Democracy will fail.

While professing such great loyalty and confidence in O'Daniel, his followers handed him a severe rebuke and showed that they do not take everything he says as being the gospel truth. O'Daniel ganged up with the laxative king, Hal Collins, and tried to oust Governor Coke Stevenson who had befriended him and was responsible for any legislation that was passed while O'Daniel was Governor. In return for all that Stevenson had done for O'Daniel, the Senator tried to pawn off a second rate radio comedian on the people of Texas. You can judge people by the crowd they run with; and O'Daniel was running with a man who hates Roosevelt. The News compliments O'Daniel's friends for not accepting the Senator's recommendation.

Furthermore, you can always judge a man pretty well by the way his home people support him. O'Daniel has never carried his home precinct in Fort Worth where the people know him best. Perhaps they do not listen to his enchanting voice over the radio.

O'Daniel and his friends attempt to claim that the poor Senator is being plastered with mud in this campaign. If that is true, the Senator mixed this mud, because any public official must stand or fall on his public record. The person who will study the record of these two men must be convinced that the record of O'Daniel is largely a failure as a public official, while the record of Allred has been a record of achievement.

The silliest campaign thunder that has been put out this year is the claim of the O'Daniel forces that the Senator was "counted out" in the first primary. Here are the facts: More than 30,000 Texas citizens were hired to hold the primary. These people took an oath to correctly count the ballots. Reports were made by the election judge of each voting precinct to a central place in the county, usually the newspaper. The newspapers did not handle or even see the election returns, but simply reported the returns as given them by the election judges. The newspapers wired reports to the Texas Election Bureau, which is conducted by the newspapers of Texas for the convenience of the people of Texas. This Bureau prides itself in speed and accuracy. The various election judges make detailed reports to the County Executive Committees of the 254 counties of Texas. These reports are checked by the Committees and returns mailed to the State Executive Committee. The State Committee makes an independent compilation of the election returns. The fact that the reports of the Texas Election Bureau and the State Executive Committee vary but little is a high compliment to the election officers and to the various people who handle the election returns. If O'Daniel and his followers believe that the Senator was "counted out," then they charge that more than 30,000 Texas election officials are crooked and cannot be relied upon to hold an honest election. Such a charge is absurd, and should be sufficient grounds for the defeat of W. Lee O'Daniel.

Senator O'Daniel has exposed his hand in dubbing Jimmie Allred as a "yes" man, and that he, O'Daniel, is an independent. O'Daniel admits his weakness in this statement. He has been independent just like the other isolationists in Washington. Furthermore, let your mind run back only a couple of years when O'Daniel was Governor. Who was it that branded the "56" in the legislature who refused to be "yes" men to the Governor? Who was it that campaigned to defeat the "56" because they refused to pass his multiple sales tax, which he called a transaction tax? Who was it then seeking to be supreme in command of Texas and Texas affairs? It was this same W. Lee O'Daniel, who now says he is an independent and will not follow the President of the United States in the war program and in writing the peace after the war. Do Texans want such a man as Senator?

With all the bad news coming from Russia, it is hard to be optimistic. However, you may be assured of several hard facts: First, Russia has much greater manpower than Germany; second, Russia has adopted the scorched earth policy, and the Germans are getting very little material as they progress; third, it is a fight to the finish so far as the Russians are concerned. They are not afraid to fight—the whole population is in the fight to win, because they will lose everything if they do not win; fourth, more war materials are going to Russia from England and America than most people realize. The supply will increase as the months go by. Most military experts are convinced that the Germans will never be able to whip Russia so long as Stalin can hold up the morale of the nation.

Poor India is suffering from too much idealism, just like American suffered from isolationism. Gandhi is no doubt a brilliant idealist, but we are not living in a day of idealism. The world is facing realism, and these realists have built war machines greater than the world has hitherto never dreamed. It is unlikely that many people in this country understand India and what is behind the movement of Gandhi. The English have been working on this problem for a long time, and yet have not solved it. Gandhi seems to be playing into the hands of the Japs, regardless of his aims. One thing is sure and certain, the map of the world is being rapidly remade, and the far-flung British Empire is rapidly shrinking as a result of the war.

Big cargo planes will be built in large numbers unless the plans are blocked by some of the army and navy brass hats who cannot keep up with the rapid strides made in air power. It is mighty hard for a civilian to keep up with the progress being made in building war machines. It is equally hard for a man trained in certain phases of military operations to think in other terms. This is a new war—an altogether different war than the world has ever seen. The military leader who cannot keep up with these changes should step aside and allow modern thinkers to take over.

A conference was held in Russia of Allied leaders. It is rumored that Prime Minister Churchill attended. The problem of a second front was the chief subject of discussion. Hitler and his gang are certainly scared over a second front. One thing is sure and certain, President Roosevelt and Churchill will not agree to a second front until the United Nations have men and materials on hand to hold such a front.

Judge James V. Allred is not discouraged over the outlook for election as Senator. Jimmie has fought some tough political battles, and had a harder fight when he was elected Governor. If all those who do not want to see O'Daniel re-elected will go to the polls and express their sentiment, Allred will win by 35,000.

Wendell Willkie will return to one of the battle fronts in a few days as the representative of President Roosevelt. Willkie has proved himself to be a loyal, patriotic American citizen who thinks more of his Americanism than he does of his Republicanism. It is a fine thing that the President is making use of such citizens.

FAVORS O'DANIEL

Mr. Clyde Warwick,
Canyon News,
Canyon, Texas.

Dear Sir:

For many years your paper has borne an unblemished reputation throughout the State of Texas for it's fairness with the news and the skill and professional dignity its news columns reflect. Last week, your editorial columns failed wholly to measure up to the fine reputation of the sheet in which they appeared.

Many of the paper's friends, your friends, the best blood of the Plains country voted for Senator O'Daniel in the last election and will vote for him in the next. They are not "Isolationist," "Big Labor Baiters," "Pension Grabbers," nor "Tax Evaders," and many of them are not even poor nor Republican. In the main they are simple Texas Democrats exercising the Democratic right to vote as they choose, and with Christian conscience have chosen to support Mr. O'Daniel.

I've personally seen enough of politics to wonder just a little why a simple honest country boy like the Great Jim Allred would surrender a $10,000.00 per year salary, guaranteed for life, and seek an office that is little if any better and likely to be temporary, in any event. I just wonder a bit where all the money he spends in this campaign comes from. Of course I don't know. But I wonder about that just the same, which I have a good right to do. We all know it takes big money and big money always must come from them that's got it.

We, those of us who are voting for Mr. O'Daniel, believe him to be a flour salesman down here at Ft. Worth, Texas, who made a hit with the people of Texas and passed the kid-bank, the flour barrel, around till he got enough expense money to defeat the politicians of Texas who had become a scourge on the land. We are proud of him and by-gingoes! we're going to vote for him.

If Mr. Allred is necessary to the war effort, and Mr. Roosevelt will come to us and say so, we'll all vote for Jimmie. We will gladly give our boys, our money, our democratic principles and institutions to effect victory, in so far as it may be at all necessary. Mr. O'Daniel and many others have already made this sacrifice in part, and stand ready to go the whole way, if necessary.

So long, however, as Jimmie rests his case on his personal charm and political record, as for me, I prefer Mr. O'Daniel.

Yours very truly,
W. F. NIX.

Thanks, Mr. Nix, for your letter. It seems that many O'Daniel followesr were offended at the remark made last week by The News about the company with which they were forced to vote. The News did not say that all supporters of Senator O'Daniel were of this off breed type. Certainly not, and if any one believes that we said this, please read the copy once more. We did say that the isolationists and these other groups were voting for O'Daniel, and the proof is that O'Daniel carted Hal Collins, the biggest isolationist of Texas, with him in the first primary. The News believes that if O'Daniel had not made this mistake he would have been elected in the first primary. Let's go to the polls Aug. 22 and vote for the man in whom we believe, and the man whom we believe will make the best Senator for Texas. You believe O'Daniel is that man; we believe that Allred is that man. Difference of opinions makes a good hoss race, or a tight poker game; so let's shove out all the chips and have a real game on Aug. 22.—CWW.

THE PENSION RECORD

ALLRED

(1) Ran for Governor on platform of old age pensions in 1934. The first candidate for Governor in Texas to include such a plank.

(2) Submitted an old age pension Constitutional amendment to the Legislature in 1935.

(3) Made speeches asking the people to vote for it during summer of 1935.

(4) After people had voted the amendment he called special session of the Legislature to put the amendment into effect.

(5) Signed first old age pension bill in Texas History November 19, 1935.

(6) Called three special sessions of the Legislature in efforts to raise sufficient funds.

(7) Was always opposed by the same special interests who are now supporting O'Daniel in this race.

(8) Additional funds finally provided, effective November 1, 1936.

(9) 114,500 on pension rolls as his term ended.

O'DANIEL

(1) Made no speeches for adoption of the amendment in 1934.

(2) Did not vote for it (had no poll tax).

(3) Never appeared before any of the special sessions of the Legislature asking them to raise funds for pensions.

(4) Ran for Governor in 1938 glibly promising $30 per month.

(5) Got in fight with the Legislature in 1939 over transaction tax and SJR 12, a pet sales tax measure and hence, did not raise any money.

(6) Told the Legislature to submit a better plan; they did; he went on the radio against it.

(7) Lowered pension payments $6.00 per person per month in 1939 to every person in Texas on the rolls so that the big banks could be paid off.

(8) Refused to call a special session to raise money to make it up.

(9) Was re-elected, still promising $30.

(10) In 1941, opposed the omnibus tax bill to raise taxes. He said "the law stinks." (The Legislature passed it anyhow).

(11) He signed the bill, but said that he had to hold his nose while he did it.

NOTE: All the pension money ever paid to the old folks in Texas was raised by laws passed during GOVERNOR ALLRED'S administration; or by laws passed by the Legislature during O'Daniel's administration, but in spite of his OPPOSITION to them.

THAT IS THE RECORD

Theatre Manager Wants Pictures

Treasury Will Stock Theatres With Bonds On Consignment

The Olympic Theatre has been made official issuing agent among 5,000 other theatres throughout the country for the selling of defense bonds and stamps for the treasury department during the month of September.

In line with the recent statement by Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau in Washington, the local War Savings Staff has announced that the Treasury's bond and stamp drive has designated the motion picture industry as its spearhead—just as the retailers were the key force in the July drive. A billion dollar national sale is the target.

"Salute to Our Heroes" month is the title of the September drive. The slogan of the campaign will be: "Buy a Bond to Honor Every Mother's Son in Service."

W. J. Wooten, manager of the Olympic Theatre, wishes to secure a picture of every man in the service from Randall County in order to make a display of our local heroes in the lobby to help in the sales of bonds and stamps. This display will be kept throughout the duration of the war and will be added to as new men enter the service.

He may be a medal decorated hero of the battle front or the humble drafted private just on his way to camp. The plan is based on sentiment and pride in the local men who are fighting the war. It is hoped that a bond will be purchased during September in honor of every local man in the service.

Every person buying a bond at a movie theatre during September will be given a postal card to address to the man in service in whose honor the bond is purchased—a salute from home to every mother's son in service: "I have just bought a war bond and I was thinking of you when I did it," says the card which the theatre will supply and mail.

Anita Goodrich Receives Gregg Shorthand Award

Typing and shorthand students of Miss Maude Cuenod and Tom Langston recently received recognition awards for passing speed tests. Most of the students who received the shorthand award for the 100 and 120-word tests were mentioned in an earlier issue.

Left from the list was Miss Anita Goodrich, employed in the Bureau of Public Service, who received the Gregg Shorthand Expert Award for taking 140 words per minute on a 5 minute take. To qualify for this exceptional award, Miss Goodrich had to take dictation with 95 per cent perfection.

Another student, Emmet Sanders, missed only one or two words which kept him from receiving the 140-word award.

"Old Charlie" To Be On Emblem of Air Force School

The Winged Buffalo or the Flying Buffalo may be the term by which the boys and outfits of the Army Air Forces Technical School, Amarillo Field, are designated. The official emblem, a buffalo head centered on a set of wings, has been approved by Col. E. C. Black for the school. It will be used on car license plates, stationery, souvenirs, pennants and such items.

The idea is that of Major John Czingili and Capt. Maynard C. Patterson. The work was done by artist Marilu Dittrick of the McCormick Company in Amarillo. The Buffalo head in the emblem is an exact reproduction of a photograph of "Old Charlie" for years mascot of the West Texas State Buffaloes. The Buffalo is mounted and on exhibit at the Museum here.

Those who have seen the emblem are highly complimentary over its choice. This area was in an early day known as the Buffalo Plains of America and millions of buffalo grazed upon its range.

All men, including statisticians, are interested in figures.

Careful Count In August Primary

State Democratic Chairman Sends Notice to Election Officials of the State

Chairman E. B. Germany of the State Democratic Executive committee, in a letter mailed each county chairman declared that Senator W. Lee O'Daniel "has not offered or tendered any evidence whatsoever to substantiate the charges made by him that there was not an honest count of the vote in the July 25 primary."

Germany asserted O'Daniel "over the radio and in the press has challenged the integrity of the various county and precinct judges of the Democratic party."

Declaring Republicans have no right to participate in a Democratic primary, the chairman added:

"It has come to my notice that a number of voting boxes normally Republican which voted for Willkie and Landon against President Roosevelt turned in enormous majorities for Senator O'Daniel in the July 25 primary.

"It is your duty and the duty of every election judge to see that the party pledge is strictly adhered to in every respect.

"If a voter should fail to take the party pledge or should scratch, mutilate or alter the party pledge, then, under the law, the vote should not be counted."

Defining the provisions of the election law applying to qualified voters, Germany said:

"In cities of 10,000 inhabitants or more, no person shall be permitted to vote unless, at the time he presents himself for that purpose, he presents a valid poll tax receipt or a valid exemption certificate, or makes affidavit of its loss, stating in such affidavit where he paid such poll tax or received such certificate of exemption.

"In cities of less than 10,000 inhabitants, or in rural boxes, no person shall be permitted to vote unless at the time he presents himself for such purpose he holds a valid poll tax receipt, or unless he is able to clearly and satisfactorily prove to the election judge that he was more than 60 years of age prior to Jan. 1, 1941.

"The election judge should ascertain the question of age by the sworn statement of the prospective voter, and, if still in doubt, is authorized to require supporting testimony."

Germany declared that any election judge who permits a person to vote contrary to the provisions of law is subject to a fine not exceeding $500, and that any persons, other than a qualified voter, who shall vote at any election is subject to a penal sentence of not less than two nor more than five years.

JUDGE E. C.

NELSON

Candidate for

Chief Justice Court of Civil Appeals

Saturday, Aug. 22nd

DOES TRAINING COUNT?

If not, why have schools and colleges? Judge Nelson has had the best literary and legal training our country affords.

DOES EXPERIENCE COUNT?

Should a Chief Justice have had some actual experience as a practicing lawyer? Should he have had some experience before the Court he seeks to preside over? Judge Nelson has had years of experience, both as a practicing lawyer and as a trial judge.

SHOULD REPRESENTATION BE EQUAL?

The Lubbock area already has one of the judges of this Court; and the Vernon area has one. Isn't it fair for the northern part of the district to continue to have a representative on the Court?

WHO SHOULD CHOOSE THE CHIEF JUSTICE?

The people? Or a group of Lubbock lawyers? Judge Nelson did not ask any group whether he might run for the office; and he has not sought any endorsements. If elected, he will be under no obligations to any such group. He will be able to chart the course of the law fairly for all. Is that what you want? If so,—VOTE FOR JUDGE E. C. NELSON.

Pvt. Geo. Schaeffer Writes About the Coming Election

Dear Editor:

Just a few lines to let you know I am back on the job. We have a really fine camp here, all new, and right in the shadow of Pikes Peak. Nice and cool up here too, after coming out of Arkansas, and a really good bunch of men here from all parts of the good old U. S. A. In this man's army, changing about as I have, you can really get a good idea of our country, as we have boys from all corners of the country, and all good boys too. It really gives you a thrill to talk to them, all with one purpose in view. You can see how our country is welded together, and believe me, they are depending on the folks back home to back them to the very limit and then some.

This is an all-out war and it is going to take an all-out effort from every one in uniform and out to get the job done, and for the time being this should be our only consideration. We must forget all our petty differences and striving for sectional or class favoritism and get behind them until the job is completely done and done right, this time.

Our battle-cry has been "Remember Pearl Harbor," but let us add to that "Remember France." About one-third of these boys here are married men and want to get this job done as quickly as possible and get back to their families. This percentage of married men will increase by leaps and bounds in the next few months and our only consideration should be to get 100 per cent behind them and stay there. I am confident that if this is done and the entire country unified with the one purpose in view, we can finish the job next year, but if we don't go forward with this unity of purpose in view, God only knows what might happen, "Remember France."

I am really proud of the vote that Randall county gave Allred and Dan Moody, two of the best and most farseeing men the great State of Texas ever produced. Must hide my head in shame though to think that my own precinct put O'Daniel high man. Thought I had more progressive and patriotic neighbors than that. Well, Barnum said the people liked to be bamboozled. Guess he should have said the people of Texas like it extra well. Well, there is still time for the Great State of Tevas to redeem herself as I understand that Jim Allred will be in the run-off. Get behind him and at least double the vote he got in the first primary.

This is war, total war and it is our duty to vote for the man who will get heart and soul behind our great Commander-in-Chief and stay there to the finish. This is no time for a lot of hooey. Put O'Daniel back on the road selling flour in his red, white and blue automobile, and send Jim Allred to the Senate, a man who will back us 100 per cent, a man who served in the last war and who understands what unity can do. A man who will never betray us as we were betrayed after the last war by a little band of loud-mouthed "wilful isolationists" who crucified our other great war leader, Woodrow Wilson, and sabotaged the League of Nations, thereby playing directly into the hands of Hitler and his gang of unspeakable cut-throats.

Jim Allred (or Dan Moody either) are men who have always been and will continue to be 100 per cent American, men whose words or actions will never cause old Sam Houston or Davy Crockett to turn over in their graves.

A long step downward from these great men to O'Daniel whose own selfish interests and personal aggrandizement are his only considerations.

Rally, Texans, and redeem yourselves while there is yet time!

Who Wins?

Senator O'Daniel

Senator charged he might have won in the first primary.

In his characteristic showmanship manner the Senator jumped on the newspapers which were not supporting him, and praised the newspapers which were supporting him. He charged that the opposing newspapers would not print the truth. The Amarillo News celebrated the fact that it printed the truth once by sponsoring a Mothers-in-law celebration—and that is now dead, charged the Senator.

Regardless of the troubles of today, the people of Texas are smiling through their tears. "There is nothing funny about conditions," stated the speaker. "We are going to win the war." The people have confidence in their great leader, President Roosevelt and will give him what he wants to win the war. "I shall vote for everything Roosevelt wants during the next six years," stated the Senator, but denied five times during his speech that he was a "yes-man." Te referred five times to the fact that he had a son in the army.

The Senator referred to his opponent throughout the speech as a "yes-man." The professional politicians were charged with bringing out this opponent. The Senator displayed his ability in speaking in terms of derision of his opponent, and his platform, which the Senator charged was being re-written for this campaign.

The Senator charged that a fund of a billion dollars was being raised by labor racketeers to change the Democratic form of government.

A lot of this money is being spent to defeat him in this election. "I am not going to be a "yes-man," retorted the Senator. He charged that the labor racketeers were getting control of Congress, and would then seek to control business, farmers and other industries.

The Senator stated that he introduced his bill to control strikes the first day he was in Congress but not a single Senator had nerve enough to vote for the bill. The labor racketeers were now seeking to defeat the only Senator who opposed them.

"I don't like to live in Washington, but I have a job to do and am going to stay in Washington to complete this job," stated the Senator

Miss Ruth Hood of Amarillo spent several days here this week with Mrs. L. M. Cousins. Miss Madeline Belle of Hereford was also a guest here Tuesday of Mrs. Cousins.

Mrs. Joe Gill left for her home in Abernathy Sunday after spending two weeks visiting friends and relatives here.

More Trainees To Come Here

Dean Jarrett Is Calling Candidates to Meeting Here on August 18

Five Navy air cadets and five Army Air Corps reservists are well advanced in their CPT-directed flight training at West Texas State College. Another quota of ten more young men will follow them in the second new program beginning September 1.

Dean R. P. Jarrett, college CPT coordinator, is calling for a meeting of all new candidates here on August 18, at 2 p. m. The next class offering will be discussed and a date fixed for physical and mental examinations. The Navy will fill its quota, but the Army's is to be filled by voluntary enlistments. The primary course in flight training, ground work, radio, mathematics, physics, and military and physical training will last eight weeks.

Under the new plan, the trainees are housed at Stafford Hall, fed at the College Cafeteria, and furnished transportation to the College Airport. They will study to become flight instructors, service pilots, or take other jobs in the maintenance of the nation's vast system of military and commercial aviation.

One group of eligibles is made up of young men from 17 to 27 years. These men, however, must have been rejected by the Air Corps for regular cadet training, but must have made a grade of 65 or above on the mental tests. Men of 27 to 37 years of age also are eligible, providing they pass the mental and physical tests. The CPT program has especial appeal for men about to be drafted, because it offers an expedited and more direct route to advancement in the military forces.

A new CPT class will start here each eight weeks.

Campus Fliers—for Army and Navy

Campus fledglings are these CPT trainees who will complete the primary course in aviation by September 1. Each man has soloed. In the picture left to right are Dean R. P. Jarrett, course coordinator; Fred Hall of Plainview, flight instructor; Lawrence Byars, White Deer; Gail Lane, Forgan, Okla.; Bud Pool, Amarillo; Billy Landrum, Amarillo; Tommy Lindsey, Wichita Falls; Grady Williams, Crosbyton; Junior Crites, Follett; Roy Long, Canyon; Bob Siler, Sweetwater; Eugene Newberry, Canyon; J. W. Reid, Dumas, instructor in navigation; and Louis Cole, flight instructor, Hoover. Theirs are fulltime jobs in aviation.

College Repairs Are Started But Workmen Scarce

A serious labor shortage, especially in the skilled trades, threatens to delay and prolong the college program of refinishing classrooms, dormitories, and exteriors.

Major repairs must be made at Terrill Hall, which will be used as a cooperative for men, and at Cousins Hall. The lobby and reception room at Cousins will be refinished and some new furniture purchased.

Much needed painting of the exterior woodwork of the Administration Building will begin soon. Stone work will be "pointed" at the Education Building. Some of the cottages must be refinished. Several office changes made in the main building to house the newly created deans will necessitate some alterations.

Skilled labor of all kinds is scarce and some is not obtainable.

Meanwhile, a well house is being built of brick at the new water well east of Terrill Hall. Water mains are being extended to the new college property along Highway 87, where much beautification is scheduled.

Abilene Man Is Added to Staff

Prof. W. F. Haggard, head of the Department of Business Administration at McMurry College of Abilene, has been added to the faculty of West Texas State College.

Prof. Haggard will replace Prof. Robert J. Hibbetts, who has enlisted in the U. S. Army and is at Miami Beach, Fla.

Mr. Haggard has a B. A. degree from North Texas State and the M. B. A. degree from the University of Texas, in addition to other graduate work. At McMurry his department has grown rapidly. He had a large following at Abilene among business men, many of whom took his downtown courses.

Prof. Haggard will teach one or more classes at the Amarillo Center in the Early Building. He is a specialist in accounting, including income tax and governmental work. He is 43 years old.

West Texas State has a large and growing business department with two types of courses. One course leads to the B. B. A. degree in four years. The other takes students to a certificate of proficiency in two years and is for those who wish to begin office work at the end of this time.

Museum Visitors Many in July

Attendance at the Panhandle-Plains Museum during the month of July reached 3,196, according to Boone McClure, assistant curator. Thirty-three states, the District of Columbia, and Panama were represented. Texas, California, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and New York had the largest number of visitors.

The total attendance for this year at the museum has reached 15,567, making 306,226 since the opening in 1933.

Price Control Is Hedge Against Future Inflation

Clarence Thompson was in charge of the Rotary Club program Tuesday. He talked on price control as a war agency. Price control was set up by Leon Henderson with a three-fold purpose: Prevention of inflation; rationing of limited articles; protection of consumers.

There are 13 sections under OPA, but Mr. Thompson talked only on the one dealing with farm machinery. There are 1200 firms making farm machinery, but 75% of this equipment is made by only eight firms. This made price control relatively easy as all manufacturers were willing to co-operate.

Mr. Thompson displayed charts to show comparison in prices of farm machinery; total cash increase of farm income; and sales of farm implements.

Prices of farm machinery advanced faster in 1914-1918 than has been the increase 1939-42.

Farm income rose from 100 to 124 in 1914-18; while the increase of 1939-41 has been 100 to 136.

Manufacturing of farm machinery has been limited during World War II and only 75% of last year. These machines will be distributed to farmers who are making the best use of them.

With farm income greatly increased and with a smaller amount of machinery available, the farmers have more money for consumer goods. In order to hedge against inflation, a ceiling has been placed on prices in order to hold them in line. Because labor has not been regulated, prices of manufactured goods will naturally increase, but not as rapidly as they would without this ceiling. With this surplus money farmers are urged to pay off their debts and to buy War Bonds. These bonds will be a reserve when the post-war depression hits.

Mr. Thompson answered many questions on price control which were asked by members of the club.

Visitors were: O. A. Thomas of Amarillo; J. W. Reid of Dumas.

Amarillo Center Is Approved by State

New Unit To Open Sept. 21

Fees to Be Similar To Those Here—No Books Are Furnished

"I am approving for the State Department of Education the resident center at Amarillo."—E. C. Dodd, college and curriculum examiner for the department.

This approval of the Amarillo Center, which will be opened next month in the Early Building, 2101 Harrison was made on the basis of a plan submitted by West Texas State College to the State Department of Education. The library resources of the main campus will be made available to students of the Center, and the faculty of the two divisions will be the same.

Buying Furniture

Roy C. Boger of Dallas, selected by President J. A. Hill to be director of the Amarillo Center, will arrive within a few days and will take up residence at the Center. The preparation of the building and grounds for new uses will begin immediately. New furniture, including miniature equipment for a nursery school, will be installed. Mr. Boger resigned as executive secretary of Southern Methodist University to take the position in Amarillo.

Miss Alma May Clark will arrive September 1 to start plans for the Nursery School, which she will direct. She has been director of the nursery school at Louisiana Tech, but spent the summer at Iowa State College, where she managed a home management cottage and did graduate work. She is a specialist in child development.

Registration Announced

Registration for work at the Amarillo Center will be held from September 14 to 19, with the first assembly following on September 21. More than twenty courses will be offered in advanced and graduate work. These are listed in a folder now obtainable from the Registrar at Canyon. Most classes will meet in the evenings, but course periods will be re-arranged, if necessary, after the students assemble. Courses will be offered in Business Administration, Education, English, Geography, Government, Economics, History, Home Economics, and possibly other subjects.

Fees Set Up

Tuition will be $7.50 for one three-semester hour course; $13.50 for two courses; $19.50 for three courses; and $25 for four or more courses. In addition there will be a $2.50 registration fee regardless of the number of hours involved. Courses may be audited for $5 each.

The nursery school fee will be $15 a month for each child, which will provide beverages, noon meals, and personal and group conferences with parents. Offered at the same time by Miss Clark will be a three-semester class, "The Pre-School Child." Applications for admission to the nursery school will be received by Miss Clark at the Amarillo Center after September 1. Only twenty children can be taken.

proposing an amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding a new section thereto to be known as Section 49a, requiring all bills passed by the Legislature on and after January 1, 1945, appropriating money for any purpose, to be sent to the Comptroller of Public Accounts for his approval, and fixing the duties of the Comptroller with reference thereto; authorizing the Legislature to provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of serial bonds, equal in principal to the total outstanding, valid, and approved obligations owing by the General Revenue Fund on September 1, 1943; providing for the submission of this amendment to the voters of this State; prescribing the form of ballot; providing for the proclamation and publication thereof; and providing for the necessary appropriation to defray necessary expenses for the submission of this amendment.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto, immediately after section 49, a section to be known as Section 49a, to read as follows:

"Section 49a. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller of Public Accounts in advance of each Regular Session of the Legislature to prepare and submit to the Governor and to the Legislature upon its convening a statement under oath showing fully the financial condition of the State Treasury at the close of the last fiscal period and an estimate of the probable receipts and disbursements for the then current fiscal year. There shall also be contained in said statement an itemized estimate of the anticipated revenue based on the laws then in effect that will be received by and for the State from all sources showing the fund accounts to be credited during the succeeding biennium and said statement shall contain such other information as may be required by law. Supplemental statements shall be submitted at any Special Session of the Legislature and at such other times as may be necessary to show probable changes.

"From and after January 1, 1945, save in the case of emergency and imperative public necessity and with a four-fifths vote of the total membership of each House, no appropriation in excess of the cash and anticipated revenue of the funds from which such appropriation is to be made shall be valid. From and after January 1, 1945, no bill containing an appropriation shall be considered as passed or be sent to the Governor for consideration until and unless the Comptroller of Public Accounts endorses his certificate thereon showing that the amount appropriated is within the amount estimated to be available in the affected funds. When the Comptroller finds an appropriation bill exceeds the estimated revenue he shall endorse such findings thereon and return to the House in which same originated. Such information shall be immediately made known to both the House of Representatives and the Senate and the necessary steps shall be taken to bring such appropriation to within the revenue, either by providing additional revenue or reducing the appropriation.

"For the purpose of financing the outstanding obligations of the General Revenue Fund of the State and placing its current accounts on a cash basis the Legislature of the State of Texas is hereby authorized to provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of serial bonds, equal in principal to the total outstanding, valid, and approved obligations owing by said fund on September 1, 1943, provided such bonds shall not draw interest in excess of two (2) per cent per annum and shall mature within twenty (20) years from date."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State of Texas, at the next general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1942, being November 3, 1942, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots, the words:

"For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, requiring appropriation bills passed by the Legislature to be presented to and certified by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as to available funds for payment thereof, limiting appropriations to the total of such available funds, providing for issuance of bonds to pay off State obligations outstanding September 1, 1943, and fixing the duties of the Legislature and Comptroller of Public Accounts with reference thereto."

Those opposing said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots, the words:

"Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, requiring appropriation bills passed by the Legislature to be presented to and certified by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as to available funds for payment thereof, limiting appropriations to the total of such available funds, providing for issuance of bonds to pay off State obligations outstanding September 1, 1943, and fixing the duties of the Legislature and Comptroller of Public Accounts with reference thereto."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have same published as required by the Constitution for amendments thereto.

Sec. 4. The sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State of Texas, not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of such publication and election. 20t4

Old Age Checks For Month Will Average $20.09

Austin, Aug. 5.—The State Department of Public Welfare will distribute this month $3,571,721 to 177,822 Old Age Assistance recipients. Expenditures are now in excess of current income, this being authorized by the State Comptroller in compliance with a recent ruling of the Attorney General to the effect that no ceiling of expenditures exists so long as the funds are made available through the monthly allocation of $1,750,000 out of state funds.

The assistance rolls made a net gain of 1,409 and cost increase of $66,558 over the previous month. The average grant jumped from $19.87 to $20.09.

The welfare department reinvestigated 7,599 cases during July which resulted in a $6.27 average raise to 6,232 recipients. Grants of 777 recipients, averaging $21.01, were sustained without change and 425 had their grants lowered an average of $4.22. Only 165 of all reinvestigated cases were found to be currently ineligible.
